Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 2, 2025, 10:00 a.m. Service

WELCOME TO FPC

We are so glad you are with us on this day where we celebrate the gift of hope for ourselves and for our world. We invite you to follow us on Facebook, sign up for our weekly emails or check the website regularly to see the new things God is doing among us at FPC Findlay!

CHILDREN IN WORSHIP

Little Ones: Infants and toddlers are welcome to join trained caregivers in Room 333 on the third floor during worship.

Children's Worship Bulletins: These are available along with activity packets in the Narthex. Ask a Greeter for one.

Prayground: Today, children remain in worship to celebrate Communion and are invited to come to the Prayground at the front of the church during Grateful Response.

WORSHIP VIA FACEBOOK LIVE

As the prelude begins, we invite you to share your prayer requests in the comments section beneath the Facebook Live video.

LITURGICAL ART

First Presbyterian Church follows the liturgical calendar to mark the seasons of our life together as Christians. We are currently in the season of Epiphany or Ordinary Time, which lasts from Epiphany to Ash Wednesday. The color GREEN symbolizes the renewal of living things and the promise of new life and growth for the Church. The DOSSAL CURTAIN, behind the Cross, and the paraments on the pulpit and lectern visually depict a saying of Jesus: "Out of the believer's heart shall flow rivers of living waters" -John 7:30. It also reminds us of the words "Let justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream" -Amos 5:24. The TREE OF LIFE, on either side of the Chancel depicts Revelation 22:2 "On either side of the river was the tree of life, and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations." The vision of artist Don Beck remains a formative influence on the worship life of First Presbyterian Church.

Honoring our heritage, we are a dynamic body welcoming all to Christ's spacious table, illumined to serve God with imagination and love.

Choral Introit

Listen, God Is Calling

Listen, listen, God is calling, through the Word inviting, offering forgiveness, comfort, and joy.

*Call to Worship

Side 1: There is always good to do

Side 2: There is always a need of mercy

Side 1: There is always more to learn

Side 2: There is always risk when God's truth meets the ways of the world.

All: And Jesus has called us and sent us to bear his light into the world.

Let us come in the power of the Spirit to be refreshed and prepared for his work.

*Call to Confession

*Prayer of Confession

Creator God,

The first day humans experienced in Creation was a day of rest.

We confess we have turned that around,

and live as if we are the creator who worked first and rested at the end and mostly we don't even do that.

We miss out on the blessing of growing from gift and joy,

And instead often make everything about being right, following rules, earning our way.

We also are prone to casual, even absent-minded, lives —just going through our everyday tasks without much thought, about how to better orient toward you in between Sundays.

And so we confess that we're defensive about sabbath rest,

swinging between declaring it outdated and being desperate for respite from endless work,

between judging those who take days off and wishing we could do it ourselves.

Forgive us, loving God.

Forgive us for distorting your story and then trying to fit our lives to it.

Show us once again your more excellent way, and heal us that we may reflect your image clearly into a world longing for grace.

(Silent Confession)

We pray this all in the name of Christ. Amen.

*Assurance of Pardon

Friends, believe the Good News of the Gospel.

In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

*Passing of the Peace

Peace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

And also with you.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD

Prayer for Illumination

First Lesson

Jeremiah 17:5-10

Thus says the Lord:

Cursed are those who trust in mere mortals
and make mere flesh their strength, whose hearts turn away from the Lord.

<sup>6</sup>They shall be like a shrub in the desert and shall not see when relief comes.

They shall live in the parched places of the wilderness,
in an uninhabited salt land.

<sup>7</sup>Blessed are those who trust in the Lord,
whose trust is the Lord.

<sup>8</sup>They shall be like a tree planted by water, sending out its roots by the stream.

It shall not fear when heat comes,
and its leaves shall stay green;
in the year of drought it is not anxious,
and it does not cease to bear fruit.

<sup>9</sup>The heart is devious above all else;
it is perverse—
who can understand it?

<sup>10</sup>I the Lord test the mind
and search the heart,
to give to all according to their ways,
according to the fruit of their doings.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Scripture Anthem

Hear My Prayer

Moses Hogan

*O Lord, please hear my prayer, in the morning when I rise. It's your servant bound for glory.
O dear Lord, please hear my prayer. O Lord, please hear my prayer, keep me safe within your arms. When my work on earth is done, and you come to take me home. Just to know I'm bound for glory, and to hear you say well done. Done with sin and sorrow, have mercy, mercy. Amen.*

Second Lesson

Luke 13:10-17

<sup>10</sup>Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath. <sup>11</sup>And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. <sup>12</sup>When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, "Woman, you are set free from your ailment." <sup>13</sup>When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God.

<sup>14</sup>But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the Sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, "There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured, and not on the Sabbath day.” <sup>15</sup>But the Lord answered him and said, “You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger, and lead it away to give it water? <sup>16</sup>And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the Sabbath day?” <sup>17</sup>When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame; and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things that he was doing.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

 be thou still my strength and shield; be thou still my strength and shield.
 I will ev - er give to thee; I will ev - er give to thee.

Few Welsh hymns are as well known or loved as this 18th-century text that did not gain its popular tune until the early 20th century. In both its original text and in English translation, it is a stirring hymn of pilgrimage filled with vivid imagery from Hebrew Scripture.

Though cast in an individual's voice, this prayerful text shows a strong communal awareness of the people gathered around the Lord's Table, their personal burdens, and matters of both local and global concern. The final two stanzas reflect renewed spiritual strength and resolve.

Capo 1: (E) (B) (A) (E) (A)

Verses sung by soloists

1 I will bless the Lord at all times. Praise shall always be on my lips;
 my soul shall glory in the Lord, for God has been so good to me. (Refrain)

2 Glorify the Lord with me. Together let us all praise God's name.
 I called the Lord, who answered me; from all my troubles, I was set free. (Refrain)

3 Worship the Lord, all you people. You'll want for nothing if you ask.
 Taste and see that the Lord is good; in God we need put all our trust. (Refrain)

Because the first half of verse 8 is the emotional high point of Psalm 34, this paraphrase fittingly uses it as a refrain. In the Christian context of the Lord's Supper, the invitation to participate ("taste") is joined with the promise of blessing ("see that the Lord is good").

 broth - er; Spir - it of all kind - ness, be our guide.
 heal - ing; Spir - it of com - pas - sion, fill each heart.

As soon becomes apparent, this sung prayer is not limited to personal physical healing. It deals with the larger and intangible gifts of peace and hope to vanquish fear and sorrow, and it is cast in the plural because it is concerned with the healing of a wounded community.

MISSION

Community Dinner

Sunday, February 9, 11:00 a.m.-12:30 p.m., Great Room

The Community Dinner outreach provides a nutritious home-cooked meal on the 2nd Sunday of each month to the community. Volunteers meet at 9:00 a.m. on the 2nd Saturday to prep the meal. The Community Dinner is a great way to show God's love through the gift of food and fellowship. Sign up to help outside the Church Office or contact Tracy Kennedy.

City Mission Volunteers Needed

City Mission is looking for volunteers to help feed and house the hungry and homeless in our community. To get involved, visit findlaymission.org, scroll to "Volunteer," and begin your journey to learn the many ways in which you can assist the City Mission, Martha's Home, and Transformation Thrift Store.

Darrel the Barrel

This month: Children's Pull-Ups (all sizes)

City Mission asks for donations for specific items each month to help feed, house, and care for the unhoused in our community. As we go deeper into partnership with them, particularly Martha's Home, filling Darrel will enable them to use their resources more efficiently for all those who seek their help. The Barrel is located in the Narthex.

MISSION (continued)
